16 Violent Deaths in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sixteen persons met violent death in Arkansas during the Memorial Day holiday weekend, nine on the state's highways, three in boating mishaps and four by drowning.

The traffic death toll was a sharp contrast to the 1965 holiday when only two persons were killed.

Five persons were killed in a head-on collision near Clarendon early Saturday. The other four died in single accidents. Only one occurred Memorial Day.

Jimmy Huggins, 13, of near Malvern, was killed when the motor scooter he was riding collided with a car at an intersection of county roads near Malvern. Tony Wayne Head, 15, of near Malvern, driver of the scooter, was seriously injured, said State Trooper Jim Bray.

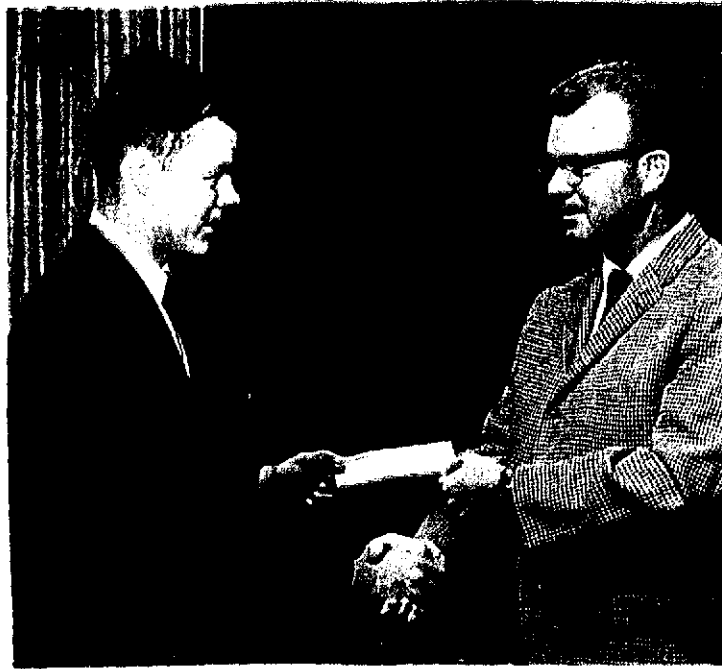

The other traffic fatalities were at Hazen, near Pine Bluff, and at England.

The only other violent death reported Memorial Day was that of Richard Garrett, 14, of Hoxie, who drowned while swimming in Lake Charles in Lawrence County between Powhatan and Lynn.

The other drowning deaths occurred at Little Rock and Cave Springs Saturday and Sunday.

The boating mishap deaths occurred on the Ouachita River near El Dorado and on Lake Beaverfork near Conway.

Receives Scholarship

David Barber, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Barber, receives a $500 Citizens National Bank College Scholarship from Mitchell Larone, vice president and cashier.

David, a graduating senior from Hope High School, received the scholarship for outstanding high school work. He is a "B" student, an All-District AA Guard on the school football team and was voted most valuable player by his teammates.

David, who plans to major in Agricultural Engineering, will enter the University of Arkansas this fall.

The scholarship, founded in 1965, is given by the Citizen National Bank each year to a most deserving graduating senior from Hope High School.

Court to Rule on Vote Machines

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Supreme Court is expected to rule Monday on a lawsuit which may determine whether Pulaski County will have voting machines for use in the November general election.

Ralph A. Welsh, a justice of the peace, filed suit in Pulaski Chancery Court to void a contract by that county's election commission for lease of 300 voting machines.

Chancellor Murray Reed ruled the contract valid, but declined to order County Judge Arch Campbell to pay the lease charges with county general funds.

The election commission, which took the case to the Supreme Court, wants the voting machines by September 1.

Monday is the last session for the Supreme Court before its summer recess.

Another Added

WASHINGTON (AP) — St. Francis County, Ark., is one of 29 counties in 15 states to be added to the federal food stamp program starting June 1, President Johnson announced Saturday.

Ozarka Plans Convention

POTEAU, Okla. (AP) — The annual convention of the Ozarka Regional Development Association will be held at Fountainhead State Lodge near here June 22.

Among speakers will be William M. McCandless of Oklahoma City, named by President Johnson recently as federal co-chairman of the Ozarka Commission.

Governors Orval Faubus of Arkansas and Warren Hearnes of Missouri are also scheduled to speak at the first convention of the association.

Sees Dangers of Medicare

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — The nation should turn its attention to financing adequately the current provisions of Medicare before attempting any expansion of the program, Richard S. Arnold said here Monday.

The 4th Congressional District candidate told Jaycees here that though Medicare does not begin until July 1 there are already dire predictions of shortages of medical facilities and personnel.

He predicted shortages would worsen under Medicare.

Wants Negroes in Place Historically

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — A. Philip Randolph, president of the Negro American Labor Council, has urged the council and the rest of organized labor to write a history text which would contain the "proper picture of the heroic Negro leaders."

"Most of the histories in our schools carry no sound or reliable picture of the role of the Negro in the United States culture," Randolph said.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) —Network television loves a sit-by-the-fire kind of holiday. But the long Memorial Day weekend is a hit-the-road, outdoor barbecue type, and except for a lot of baseball and some golf shows, there was not much on the tube to counteract the lure of the maple tree's shade.

Most interesting hour of the long weekend had to be the first part of NBC's two-part "White Paper" Sunday night called "The Age of Kennedy." It was broadcast on the 49th anniversary of the late president's birth, and one wishes it had been a more incisive and illuminating study of those years when John Fitzgerald Kennedy was progressing from a Harvard University graduate to the White House.

Next Sunday the program will deal with Kennedy's years in the White House, and perhaps some of the loose strings will be tied up then.

Obviously the producer and writer of the program, Al Wasserman, took on an enormous job in attempting to explain the motivations behind John F. Kennedy. What showed mostly, alas, was the results of his big hunt for new television film and little-known photographs of the earnest young millionaire who at 23 wrote a best-selling non-fiction book, "Why England Slept," and who by sheer determination overcame a physical handicap in order to enlist in the Navy during World War II.

Some of those early photographs and home movie clips showed an almost painfully thin, eager and shy young man going about the business of making political friends and playing with his friends and family.

They were spliced with routine newsreel clips — of Hitler, Mussolini, Chamberlain, Churchill, FDR and Harry S. Truman — designed to tie Kennedy's career to great world events. The program, however, never hinted at the motivations that carried the young Kennedy to the point when, in 1960, he was nominated for the presidency.

Henry Fonda read bits and pieces from assorted Kennedy writings and speeches.

Charges Without Foundation

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) —Charles of insincerity and unfairness against the Public Health Service have been labeled "without foundation" by an official of the region PHS here.

Dr. Jerry Jewell of Little Rock, president of the Arkansas branch of the NAACP, said PHS inspection teams were overlooking several instances of racial discrimination in Arkansas hospitals.

Lee Langster, Arkansas coordinator for the PHS compliance review teams—which inspect hospitals for compliance with civil rights laws—invited Jewell and all interested citizens to participate in the team's projects.

Dean Resigns at University

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) —Dr. Paul W. Milam, dean of the College of Business Administration at the University of Arkansas, has resigned to become a business consultant, university President Dr. David W. Mullin announced Saturday.

Milam joined the university staff in 1930 as an assistant professor of statistics and economics. He was named dean of the college in 1944.

Says Resources Being Deleted

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) —Although this county has abundance in the midst of want, its great resources — both human and natural — are being depleted, the graduating class of Arkansas State College was told Saturday night.

Dr. Herbert W. Schoelling, dean of faculties at the University of Missouri, told the 450 graduating students that employment opportunities for professional people are greater than ever before.

Solutions can be found, he said, by properly prepared people.

Coyne's Chills Bachelor's Derby

ESPARROS, France (AP) —Unexpected coyne by both sexes chilled the romance in a widely advertised "bachelors' derby" Sunday in this town in the foothills of the Pyrenees.

Only one couple appeared ready to take the step toward the altar, despite extensive preparations to make matrimonial inroads among the more than 500 bachelors in the area.

An announcement by the bachelors earlier this month that they were willing to declare themselves open game to female visitors brought a flood of letters from husband-hunting women throughout France.

Cepeda Hot in Cardinal Win; Dodgers Win

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
Orlando Cepeda is totting around the hottest bat in baseball but for slugging, how about little Maury Wills who could be a threat to Babe Ruth's home run records if there were enough Memorial Days in the year.

Cepeda had a perfect night with a homer, two doubles and a single Monday and provided all the offense Bob Gibson needed as St. Louis' ace right-hander throttled Houston 3-1 on a three-hitter.

Wills led off Los Angeles' 10-6 victory over Atlanta with a home run—the 10th of his National League career and his first one since Aug. 31, 1964.

The sudden power shown by Wills was almost expected. It was exactly four years ago—Memorial Day 1962—that the switch-hitting shortstop made it to the record book by hitting a homer from each side of the plate. Only six other National League batters have achieved that feat.

Cepeda's four hits gave him a string of seven over two games and raised his batting average to .330. The veteran first baseman, who came in trade from San Francisco for pitcher Ray Sadecki, drove in two runs and scored the other as the Cardinals on their third straight.

Sadecki, meanwhile, turned in his first victory for the Giants, beating Cincinnati 8-4 on a five-hitter. Pittsburgh swept a doubleheader from Chicago 3-2 and 5-3 with Roberto Clemente homering in each game, and Philadelphia split a pair with New York, winning 7-2 and losing 3-1.

In the American League, Chicago shut out Boston twice 1-0 and 11-0. California swept Cleveland 4-3 and 5-1. New York split with Washington, winning 4-2 and losing 2-1. Baltimore beat Minnesota 5-1 before losing 7-4 and Detroit whipped Kansas City 5-2.

Wills' homer started a 16-hit Dodger attack that included six doubles and three hits apiece by John Roseboro and Tommy Davis.

Cepeda doubled home Lou Brock in the first inning and then hammered his eighth homer of the season and fifth in 18 games with St. Louis in the fourth.

The big first baseman doubled again in the sixth and scored on Tim McCarver's single. Cepeda's eighth-inning single completed his perfect night.

Sadecki, who had a 12.38 earned run average in his last three starts for San Francisco, evened his record at 3-3 with his first complete game for the Giants. He was supported by a 12-hit attack that included homers by Willie McCovey and Tom Haller.

Clemente hammered a two-run homer in the seventh inning of the nightcap that sent the Pirates in front of Chicago stay. He had driven in Pittsburgh's first run of the game with a sacrifice fly in the fifth as the Pirates pecked away at an early 3-0 Cub lead.

Chicago shortstop Don Kessinger committed three errors in the first game, the last one permitting Clemente to score from second base with the winning run in the eighth inning. Clemente had homered in the sixth of the opener.

Four home runs helped Jim Bunning win his sixth straight game for Philadelphia in the opener against the Mets. Bill White, Johnny Callison, Bob Lecker and Richie Allen all connected for the Phillies.

Jack Fisher hurled six innings of sharp relief to gain the second victory for the Mets. He allowed one run on six hits coming on after starter Dick Salma was hit by a pitch and turned to leave the game.

Yankees Split, Detroit Downs Kansas City

By MURRAY CHASS

Associated Press Sports Writer
Jack Lamabe, who often has trouble retiring American League batters, will be in Westwood, N.J., July 12 getting married. Denny McLain, who already is married, will be in St. Louis that day trying to retire National League batters.

McLain took another step toward becoming the American League's starting pitcher in the All-Star Game by pitching his second one-hitter of the season as Detroit defeated Kansas City 5-2 Monday.

Lamabe also pitched a one-hitter in Chicago's 11-0 second-game victory over Boston, but he doesn't expect to join McLain on the AL All-Star staff so he's going ahead with his marriage plans.

"I'll be very happy just to make the White Sox," Lamabe said after missing a no-hitter because of Joe Foy's leadoff single in the eighth inning.

Lamabe never had pitched a game like that before in the majors. In fact, it was the first shutout in his five-year career and his first complete game in nearly two years. And it came in his first start of the season.

Lamabe, now with his fourth team, had compiled a 5-40 earned run average in seven relief appearances this season.

With the exception of the 1964 season when he was a starter with Boston, the 29-year-old right-hander has been primarily a reliever. In his other three seasons, he appeared in 128 games, only four of them as a starter.

McLain, on the other hand, is developing into one of the best pitchers in the majors.

A 16-game winner in his first full season in the majors last year, the son-in-law of Lou Boudreau is the winningest pitcher in the AL, has won as many games as Sandy Koufax and is only one behind major league leader Juan Marichal.

The 22-year-old right-hander stopped the White Sox on one hit May 6, allowing only a second-inning single by J. C. Martin. The only hit Kansas City managed against him was Phil Roof's two-out double in the fifth.

In other AL games, Chicago downed Boston in the first game 1-0, California swept Cleveland 4-3 and 5-1, Baltimore defeated Minnesota 5-1 before bowing 7-4 and Washington stopped New York 2-1 after losing 4-2.

In the National League, San Francisco defeated Cincinnati 8-4, Los Angeles outslugged Atlanta 10-6, Pittsburgh swept Chicago 3-2 and 5-3, St. Louis beat Houston 3-1 and Philadelphia whipped New York 7-2, then lost 3-1.

Lamabe was supported in his one-hitter by Tommy Agee and Don Buford, who between them collected five hits, scored eight runs, drove in two and stole five bases. Lamabe's shutout was the third straight for the White Sox.

John Buzhardt gained the second in a row in the opener, stopping the Red Sox on five hits. Bill Skowron singled across the only run of the game in the seventh inning.

Roff's hit off McLain drove in two runs—the runners had walked—and tied the game 2-2. But Dick McAuliffe tripled home two runs in the seventh and scored on Norm Cash's single.

Home runs by California's Jim Fregosi and Bobby Knop helped hand Cleveland its second doubleheader defeat in two days.

Fregosi's seventh-inning homer in the opener snapped a 3-3 deadlock while Knop's two-run blast in the fourth inning of the second game put the Angels ahead to stay. Minnie Rojas, making his major league debut, gained the victory in the nightcap in relief help from Dean Chance.

Dave Johnson rapped four hits in the first game, including a single that triggered Baltimore's three-run sixth inning, while Woody Held and Andy Etchebarren added homers to the Orioles' attack.

Minnesota won the nightcap behind Harmon Killebrew's pair of homers and Bernie Allen's tie-breaking, two-run blow in the eighth.

Bobby Richardson's double and a single by Elston Howard were the key blows in a three-run first inning outburst that carried the Yankees past Washington in the opener.

The Senators came back for the second game victory by breaking a 1-1 tie in the eighth on a double by Bob Chance and Bobby Richardson's single.

Hill Declared Winner of Speedway 500

By DALE BURGESS

Associated Press Sports Writer
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Londoner Graham Hill was confirmed as winner of the 50th Indianapolis 500-mile race today in official standings released by timers and scorers.

The official standings were identical from top to bottom with unofficial results announced at the close of Monday's wreck-marred race.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Official scorers reviewed the tapes of electric timing devices today in an attempt to determine the winner of the Indianapolis 500, a role unofficially granted London's mustachioed Graham Hill and disputed by Jim Clark of Scotland.

They were the first two finishers in the Memorial Day Classic Monday, and two of only seven drivers still on the track when the accident-marred race ended.

A massive, flaming pile-up involving 16 of the 33 starters scattered wrecks over the track and sent wheels and parts spraying into the crowd after a mishap on the first turn. Miraculously, only one driver—A.J. Foyt of Houston, Tex.—and 14 spectators received only minor injuries.

The 36-year-old Hill, making his first start in America's most prestigious auto race, was declared the winner after the track was cleared and the race restarted with the field trimmed to 22.

Clark's backers were quick to dispute it.

"It is impossible for Hill to be the winner," said Andrew Granatelli of Chicago, a part-owner of Clark's car. "We were a lap ahead of (Scott Jackie) Stewart and Hill was even farther behind. There's been an error."

Another Clark team member, Gene N. Spencer, a Midwest distributor of Lotus automobiles, also was quick to lodge a protest.

"I definitely believe there has been an error in the scoring," he said. "We know we won. We can't officially protest until Tuesday, but if the results are posted and show Hill the winner, we will protest immediately."

"But we believe that a check of the timing and scoring tapes will show we won."

At stake — aside from the enormous prestige — is about $200,000 in first prize money. The problem is over the number of laps completed.

The tradition-shrouded race was fouled up from the beginning, when No. 1 starter Mario Andretti barely had crossed the starting line in the flying start before Billy Foster of Victoria, B.C., only Canadian in the line-up, collided with Gordon Johncock of Hastings, Mich. Foster said somebody crowded him.

That set off a spectacular chain reaction pile-up which eliminated 11 cars and wiped out such strong contenders as Foyt, Don Branson, Champagn, [illegible] and Dan Gurney of Costa Mesa, Calif.

The race had to be restarted because of an impassable track, delaying the show an hour and 24 minutes. The only other wreck-caused restart was two years ago after drivers Eddie Sachs and Dave MacDonald were killed in a flaming second-lap pile-up.

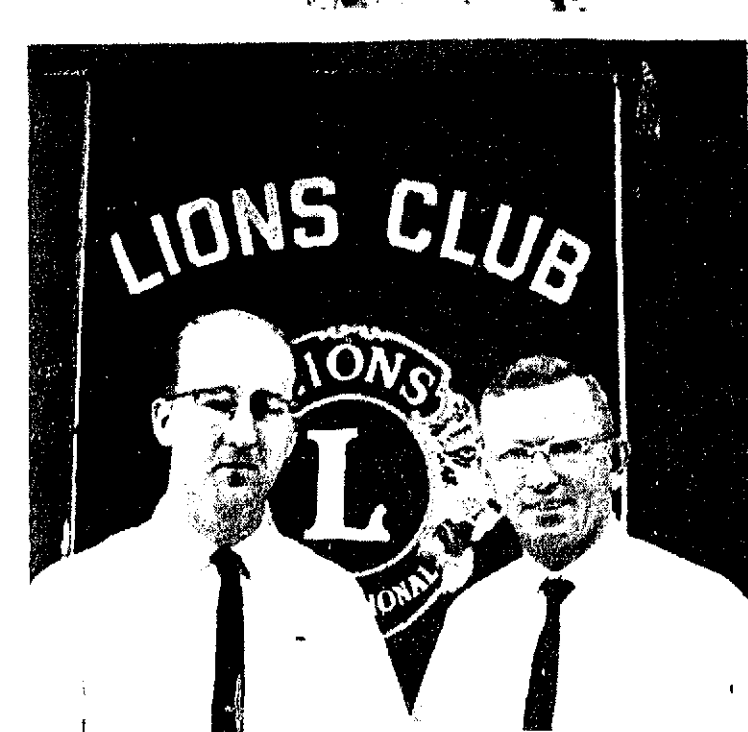

The numerically worst previous accident, the 15-car wreck on the first lap in 1958, left driver Pat O'Connor dead in a burning car.

European road racers in the field, Hill and Gurney in particular, flying start which sets up chain reaction wrecks.

Campaigns in Dominican

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Dominican presidential candidates went into the final days of their campaign today after a political crisis was resolved over the weekend.

Reformist party candidate Joaquin Balaguer withdrew from the race, claiming the election would be a "giant fraud," then reinstated his candidacy Saturday night after the government met his demands for changes in the electoral law.

The changes decreed by Provisional President Hector Garcia-Godoy give women over 25 years old the right to vote next Wednesday without having national identity cards. This change was expected to add about 4,000-5,000 new voters.

It was learned that Dominican Juan Bosch, Balaguer's chief Revolutionary party candidate rival, would not oppose the changes.

The NL schedule, two doubleheaders and three night games, attracted 128,062 fans while four doubleheaders — one a day-night affair — and one night game in the AL drew 128,630. The major league total was 256,692 compared with a total of 257,794 last year.

The day's biggest crowd — 46,882 — saw the doubleheader between Philadelphia and the Mets in New York. The smallest — 8,039 — was on hand at Kansas City for a night game between Detroit and the Athletics.

Last year's total included 148,449 for seven National League games and 109,345 for 10 American League contests.

Then I found out he didn't like me any more. You'll say it's the same old problem, but when it happens to YOU, it isn't the same at all. Everytime I think about him I begin to cry. I know I am really in love, but he is not. What can I do — H-Lover

Dear H-Lover: ... No lecture, honey. It doesn't help to say "You'll soon get over this." "It isn't real," because right now your hurt is the reallest thing going, and it's human nature to feel miserable when someone you counted on cools off.

What WILL help is a you-to-you pep talk. Be honest: your pride took the biggest wallop, not your heart. Deep down you knew this couldn't last forever, but it's not fun being bounced. So stop with the lovelorn and rejected bit and get a little mad. Tears only irrigate self-pity, but if you can say to yourself (and finally mean), "Who does that big lug think he is, anyway?" you'll soon progress to a shrug ... and another boy.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A housewives' budget brigade concluded today that government price indexes fairly reflect a hard fact of life in the 1960s: it is costing more and more to feed the family.

Many housewives seem firmly convinced that food prices just about doubled in the past year. They didn't, but government figures, supported by an independent Associated Press survey in March, show that the cost of a typical week's shopping went up nearly 7 per cent.

Meats, however, have risen sharply. Based on the government's national price averages, it cost $6.22 to buy one pound each of sirloin steak, hamburger, pork chops, ham, bacon and lamb chops in mid-March, compared with $5.12 in mid-March of 1965 — a rise of 21.5 per cent.

By contrast the other items on the shopping list of the AP's budget brigade rose only 1.5 per cent.

The AP's budget brigade figures, and the government's, should enable skeptical shoppers to judge for themselves. The AP housewives themselves started out highly skeptical on their 12-city spot survey.

They said food prices over-all were unquestionably high, although many a penny could be shaved off the grocery bill by determined bargain-hunting from store to store. Some made the point that few housewives can spare so much time from their other home-making duties. If a housewife does all her shopping at one store, the researcher in St. Louis said, "It doesn't matter much which store you shop at — they'll get all your money anyway." "Each store's weekly bargains really were bargains," she reported. "They cut off as much as 20 or 30 cents per item. But they seem to make it up somewhere else."

The Associated Press budget brigade priced a list of 38 to 40 food items, from potatoes to sirloin steak, in three supermarkets in each of the 12 cities on March 10.

Johnson Is Leary of Inquiry

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson appears to be wary of a senatorial proposal for a blue ribbon commission inquiry into U.S. relations with Communist China.

Sens. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., and George S. McGovern, D-S.D., who proposed the policy inquiry in recent Senate speeches have not been able to get any encouragement from the White House.

At the State Department, the word is that Johnson has turned thumbs down on the proposal. But the senators are not giving up hope of an eventual favorable decision.

If it chooses, Congress could set up a commission of recognized national leaders to hold hearings and advise it what to do about lessening tensions with Peking.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey is reported favorably to that idea. But Kennedy and McGovern have no present plans to introduce a resolution for such an inquiry.

No doubt everyone has at some time bought a lemon. The fruit in itself is sour. . . but the treats are sweet. . .

Lemons bleach stains, are a cook's best friend, add zing to an aperitif, harden steel and help men drill oil wells. Lemons are beloved by dieters, one theory is that taken straight they shrink the stomach! Lemons have been used for centuries by famous artists for still-life paintings. They are decorative, if you happen to have a Steuben glass bowl or cloisonne tray, fill them to the brim with firm, pale yellow lemons. . .

"We could go on and on about lemons. As you may have suspected, we have always been fond of them and the recent article in Town & Country furnished us with this and much more valuable information. But, the time has come to get with the commercial.

THE DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Operation Is Needed To Free Adhesions

BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.,
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—What causes adhesions and what are the symptoms?

A—Following an abdominal operation the cut surfaces inside the abdominal cavity may stick to an adjoining structure, the inner surface of the cavity, or a loop of intestine. In most cases there are no symptoms but sometimes the adhesions form a bandlike constriction that obstructs the intestines in one or more places. Such an obstruction would require an operation to free the adhesions.

Any other abdominal symptoms are more likely to be caused by an injudicious diet or the abuse of laxatives than by adhesions. Your surgeon now has improved ways of preventing a recurrence of adhesions when an operation to free them becomes necessary.

Q—How can a person tell whether or not he has syphilis? What treatment can be given for this disease in a person who is allergic to penicillin?

A—The diagnosis of syphilis is based on finding the causative germs in scrapings from syphilitic sores and by blood tests. In addition to penicillin, the antibiotics tetracycline and chloramphenicol will cure the disease if the treatment is given early in its course.

Q—If a person has syphilis would it affect his children mentally, physically or both?

A—A man cannot transmit syphilis to his offspring directly. If he infects his wife, she will transmit it to her child unless the disease is discovered before pregnancy occurs. Syphilis of the embryo or fetus often leads to miscarriage. A child born of a syphilitic mother may show signs of the disease at birth but syphilitic deafness, blindness and mental damage are not usually seen until the child is in his teens.

Q—If a blood test for syphilis is reported as non-reactive does this mean a person has had syphilis but can no longer transmit the disease to anyone else?

A—"Non-reactive" has replaced "negative" on reports from most laboratories. Such a report is rendered when a person has never had syphilis and when a person's syphilis has been cured.

Q—What is the cause and treatment of sialitis? Are there any bad after effects?

A—Sialitis is an inflammation of a salivary gland. Aside from mumps and poisoning with mercury and other heavy metals it is rarely seen. The treatment would depend on the cause and the extent of the damage would depend on such factors as the amount of poison involved and how promptly effective treatment was started.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

CALIFORNIA POPULATION FORECAST

California's state finance department recently issued figures predicting the growth of its population. Estimates for July 1 of the various years are shown above. A constant figure of 310,000 for the military population is assumed for each year. It has varied between 290,000 and 321,000 since 1960. If these predictions are correct, the number of residents will be doubled by the year 2000.

Eggs And Candidates

Some scientists, it appears, have nothing better to do than sit around trying to trick quail eggs. Mind you, we are not anti-scientist. We love scientists the way we have learned to love The Bomb.

The thing is, there was a news report saying scientists in England have discovered that quail eggs about to hatch send signals to each other so that all may hatch simultaneously. For a couple of days before hatching, eggs touching each other emit little sounds. If one egg is about to hatch before the others, he gets the signal and waits till they are ready, the scientists claim. That way the quail can hatch in a covey.

So just to show you how jealous a scientist can be we pass along this fact: Scientists use the records now to trick other quail eggs about ready to hatch making them come out sooner than expected.

Maybe this discovery will have practical use in Georgia politics. Candidates run for office for months before they admit they are candidates — that's hatch.

If we could develop a little recorder sound of some kind that might force them out earlier.

It would be, of course, the quietest sound of the whole campaign. — The Atlanta Journal

Not The Commercials

In this television season that has been so roundly castigated by the critics, it suddenly occurred to us that we hear few complaints about the commercials on television or radio either. The reason must be that while the programming gets worse (on radio, the political and religious evangelists on some stations are devouring the air) the commercials are getting better.

That razor blade commercial spotting razor blade tests — the one in which a scientist shaves a football and a balloon, among other things — is the best comedy show of the tv season. And on radio, even if the cajun plugging the "best antiseptic in town" is evidently gone, we have new favorites such as the delightful ad from the North Little Rock Belchfire dealer who trades for anything that moves, including rickshaws and three-hump camels (which get a 50 per cent higher allowance than two-hump camels). It sure beats Lifeline.

What we envision now, on television, is the day when you get up to raid the icebox while Dr. Eldare or Gunsmoke is on, and beat it back to the easy chair to catch the shining knight thundering down Main Street with the detergent, or to catch those lissome lovelies doing the rug in the Tiparillo ads. No, the trouble is not with the commercials but with the programs in between. — Little Rock Arkansas Gazette

Discouraging News

We are for freedom of information and the people's right to know and all that, of course, but there are some items that perhaps papers shouldn't print. The story about the Atlanta boy who did 14,118 sit-ups, for instance. That is mighty discouraging to middle-age codgers barely able to do a dozen sit-ups. — Macon (Ga.) News

Hays Picks Two to Direct Drive

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Brooks Hays said Saturday that Lt. Gov. Nathan Gordon and Little Rock attorney Edward Lester will direct his campaign for the Democratic nomination for governor.

Gordon is not seeking re-election. Lester was active in the Churches United Against Gambling last year.

Hays has said he will fight to abolish illegal gambling in the state.

Margaret Truman Has 4th Child

NEW YORK (AP)—Margaret Truman Daniel has borne a fourth child.

A boy weighing 4 pounds, 12 ounces was delivered by Caesarian section Saturday night.

Clifton Daniel, managing editor of the New York Times, and his wife, the daughter of former President and Mrs. Harry Truman, have three other sons, aged 9, 7 and 3.

Holiday Death Toll Soars to a New Record

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The death toll on the nation's roads has soared to an unprecedented three-day Memorial Day figure and it may surpass the total fatalities recorded for any Memorial Day weekend regardless of duration.

As of Monday midnight, local time, 519 lives were lost on America's highways. The death count began at 6 p.m. local time Friday.

In other accidents, 43 persons perished in boating mishaps and 60 persons drowned. Ten of the drowning victims were recorded in South Carolina.

The highest previous traffic death toll for a three-day Memorial Day period was 474 last year.

In 1963, 525 persons were killed during a four-day weekend.

The National Safety Council forecast 540 persons would die during the 78-hour period. The council said Monday the current holiday period was similar to the Fourth of July weekend last year when 547 lives were lost.

Sunny skies and pleasant weather throughout most of the nation contribute to jamming thoroughfares of Americans traveled to recreation areas, athletic events and family gatherings.

'Switchboard in Sky' at Caddo Gap

CADDO GAP, Ark. (AP)—Development of a "switchboard in the sky" which will enable simultaneous communication between several satellites and earth stations was disclosed here by Hughes Aircraft Co. Monday.

The announcement of the scientific achievement came at the formal opening of the first privately owned synchronous communications satellite research station, just completed in the Ouachita Mountains near this Montgomery County community.

Some 66 communications experts from 32 countries flew here from Washington, D.C., to attend the opening of the research facility.

The "switchboard" is known as STAR — satellite telecommunications with automatic routing, said Roy E. Wendahl, executive vice president of Hughes. He said it was developed by Hughes and the Nippon Electric Co. of Japan.

Wendahl was the first of four speakers.

Also addressing the scientists were Gov. Orval Faubus and Arkansas Sens. J. William Fulbright and John L. McClellan. The three officials confined their remarks largely to comments about the significance of the research facility and the communications achievement of Hughes.

Jap Leftists Protest at U.S. Embassy

By EUGENE LEVIN

TOKYO (AP) — Leftists planned another big demonstration in Yokosuka tonight and protested to the U.S. Embassy in Tokyo against the first visit to Tokyo Bay by a U.S. nuclear-powered submarine.

About 12,000 persons staged three demonstrations at Yokosuka Monday as the submarine Snook docked at the U.S. naval base there to give the crew five days of rest and recreation.

The demonstrators were brought to the port 30 miles south of Tokyo by the Communist and Socialist parties. Police said 30 policemen and 21 students were injured in clashes Monday and another 20 persons were hurt Sunday, when the protests started.

None of the demonstrators molested the sailors from the Snook or from the carrier Kitty Hawk and other American ships in port. Weaving through the demonstrators, the sailors went as usual to Yokosuka's shops and 2nd bars and clubs.

Realtors Are Against New Housing Bill

Exert every effort to defeat the Administration proposal that would strip from home and property owners their traditional right to choose to whom they may sell or rent, Vincent W. Forster, president of the Hope Board of Realtors, urged the area's Representative and Senators today.

In a communication to Senators, McClellan and Fulbright, and to Rep. Jim Trimble, Mr. Forster pointed out, on behalf of the board, the threat to the traditional freedom of choice and contract that is contained in the drastic federal forced housing proposal introduced at the request of President Johnson, Title IV of the new civil rights bill. The local board is one of 1,523 boards affiliated with the 83,000 member National Association of Real Estate Boards which has expressed its concern over the proposal.

"Under the facade of banning bias on the grounds of race, color, religion, or national origin, this bill would empower the federal government to force an owner to sell or rent his property to a person not of his choice, whether the property is his home, rental property, a room for rent in his home or boarding house, or even land to be used as the site of housing," Foster said.

"While the objective of open occupancy is paraiseworthy, this proposed means of accomplishing it is one hundred per cent wrong, since true and lasting acceptance of neighbors by neighbors can be accomplished only by understanding and education fostered voluntarily by churches, schools, and all men of good will. It cannot be achieved by the federal government with its vast power wiping out freedom of choice and contract for all citizens under the guise of providing a new right for minority groups."

"The citizens feel strongly about this human right of real property ownership, and in every instance where they have had an opportunity to express their views at the polls they have decisively exhibited their attitude. In ever referendum on the subject, forced housing has been overwhelmingly rejected.

"Voluntary efforts to provide equal opportunity in housing are under way quietly in many communities, and one indication of the success of this desirable approach was reflected in the recent report of the California Real Estate Association that a vast supply of desirable houses for sale is available to Negroes and other minorities who have the financial ability to buy them. More than 99 per cent of the 286,406 listings in the multiple listing services of 170 real estate boards in that state for the first 11 months of 1965 contained no racial restrictions, the California survey showed."

There was no indication of the specific nature of the material he tried to sell or whether the Soviets brought it. On these points, too, the Navy refused to talk.

Big Increase in State Liability Insurance Cost

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Insurance Department today approved a statewide rate increase of 21.2 per cent for motor vehicle liability insurance issued by 81 companies.

The increase, which takes effect Wednesday, applies to companies represented by the National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters. It follows a 15.7 per cent increase approved May 5, 1965.

Insurance Commissioner Harvey Combs said the Travelers, an independent company, received a 14.9 per cent increase.

Combs said that several other large insurers—State Farm Mutual, Allstate and MFA — was not covered by the increase but that they usually follow with requests for increases after one is granted to bureau companies.

The commissioner also approved a 3.2 per cent increase in physical damage coverage premiums.

Combs said that the increasing number of accidents and high damage ratios made the increase necessary.

He said that during the 1960-65 period, motor vehicle registrations increased only 29 per cent while traffic deaths and injuries rose 66 per cent.

Combs said that the 81 companies paid out $4,493,000 more than they collected in premiums nationally in the 1962-64 period.

The commissioner was asked for the ratio between Arkansas premiums and payments. He said the information would not be available until Wednesday because his assistant, Mrs. Fannie Hardy, was not in the office today.

"The main trouble is this simple," Combs said. "People are driving too fast, too close together. Statistics show that 75 per cent of accidents are rear-end collisions."

Obscenity Poems OK'd by Professors

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — English Department professors of the University of Arkansas advised that Preview, the campus literary magazine.

Faculty advisors dissociated themselves with the magazine when a controversy arose over the publication of four poems. The university said its legal counsel advised that the poems by a graduate student might violate Arkansas' obscenity laws and that it withheld publication of the magazine.

Students and some professors charged that the university was abridging academic freedom. The English Department professors told Dean Robert Kruh of the College of Arts and Sciences by letter that they supported the position of the faculty advisors who resigned.

Navy Finds Spy, Security Is Tightened

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Navy serviceman assigned to routine duties in a "top secret" area methodically collected highly sensitive information and tried to sell it to the Soviets, it was learned today.

As a result, the Navy is tightening its security system around the world.

The Navy turned aside all questions about the case by saying that it is "under active investigation" and that "other details are classified."

Since the man involved held a secret clearance, it can be assumed that he had undergone a fairly stringent security check beforehand.

There was no indication of the specific nature of the material he tried to sell or whether the Soviets brought it. On these points, too, the Navy refused to talk.

Condition of Fulton Girl Is Critical

Elisa Ann Baker, 17, of Fulton, remained in critical condition in a Texarkana hospital where she is being treated for head injuries sustained Saturday. Arkansas Police said the girl was crossing the street and was struck down by an auto driven by Mrs. Ethel Chambliss of Texarkana.

Surveyor 1 Is Cruising to Moon Landing

By RALPH DIGHTON

Associated Press Science Writer PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Surveyor 1 cruised today toward a new and hopefully smoother landing site on the moon after a tricky steering maneuver 97,000 miles out in space.

Jet Propulsion Laboratory officials, who are guiding the 2,200-pound camera-carrying craft toward a soft landing in the deep Sea of Storms late on Wednesday, said Surveyor responded properly to all commands during the intricate change of course.

They said it would take several hours of tracking to be sure Surveyor's new course will bring it down, as now planned, about 20 miles north of the point picked prior to Monday's launch.

The new site was chosen to give the spacecraft the smoothest possible landing area in the 62-mile diameter target circle — at the western edge of the 1,700-mile long equatorial strip selected for future Apollo astronaut touchdowns.

Like the Soviet Luna 9, which soft-landed and televised pictures from the lunar surface February 3, Surveyor is pioneering a technique planned to deposit manned craft gently on the moon.

Negro Held in Deaths of 4 Persons

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Richmond police, stumped for weeks by six metropolitan area slayings, have charged Thomas Lee Penn, 19, with murder in four of the killings. Police said he would be charged with murder in the other two today.

Penn, a Negro, was arrested Monday morning when he walked into police headquarters and gave himself up. He was charged then with malicious wounding and rape of a 14-year-old girl who had been shot and left for dead.

Police said Penn was charged in the four slayings after "we obtained a signed and detailed statement from the accused."

Penn was charged with murder in the deaths of Addison E. Wilkins, 20, an antiwar worker from New York, and Malcolm L. Norment, 41, a motel clerk, both found shot to death May 21 near an East End cemetery; Cynthia Johnson, 18, fatally shot May 10 in the city's East End; and Moslie Leon Spencer, 78, shot to death during the holdup of the motel where he worked March 10.

Wilkins and Norment were white; Spencer and the Johnson girl were Negroes.

The other two victims, James H. Carter, 52, and Willie Sexton, 21, were found shot to death in nearby eastern Henrico County. Carter was white, Sexton a Negro.

Penn's brother, William, 25, was arrested and charged with murder in Carter's death but has not been named in connection with any of the other slayings.

The 14-year-old girl left for dead provided her assailant's description to police.

Lightning Blamed for Church Fire

LEON, Spain (AP) — Lightning was blamed for a fire Sunday night which burned away part of the roof of Leon's 13th century Roman Catholic cathedral, one of Europe's masterpieces of Gothic architecture.

Priests said after a hurried inspection that most of the damage apparently was to the exterior of the roof and that paintings and decorations inside were not seriously damaged. The cathedral's stained glass windows are among the world's finest, but none was broken.

Six Suicides, Monks Call Halt for Meet With Ruling Military

Architects of Deaths Seek a Compromise

By EDWIN G. WHITE

SAIGON (AP) — Buddhist leaders held a surprise meeting with leaders of the military junta today, apparently the first round of talks to end the anti-government campaign by compromise.

The monks met with Premier Nguyen Cao Ky and Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu, a Roman Catholic and a target in the Buddhist campaign to force the military junta to resign in favor of a provisional civilian regime.

The meeting came after another Buddhist, a 17-year-old girl, had burned herself to death in Hue, center of government opposition in the North. She was the fifth and possibly the sixth suicide in the wave of anti-government protests.

Thich Tri Quang, the leading monk in South Viet Nam's rebellious northern provinces, urged "all Buddhist to cease acts of self-sacrifice in the name of Dharma (Buddhist religious law)." He said he spoke for the supreme patriarch, south Vietnamese Buddhism, Thich Tinh Khiet.

Tri Quang's followers in Hue distributed the quiet two hours after Nguyen Thi Van died in a hospital. She doused herself with gasoline and struck a match outside of Hue's Thanh Hoi pagoda at 3 a.m.

Monks and nuns from the pagoda took the girl to a hospital after extinguishing the flames. But she died in convulsions three hours later, according to reports from Hue, 400 miles northeast of Saigon.

The reports indicated the girl acted on her own and that her death had not been arranged by the Buddhist leadership. Nuns at the pagoda said she left behind three letters protesting U.S. support of Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's military regime.

Two more Buddhists—a monk in Dalat and a nun in the Buddhist Institute in Saigon—burned themselves to death Monday. A Buddhist girl was said to have slashed her wrists and bled to death Monday in Dalat, 140 miles northeast of Saigon, but this could not be confirmed.

DEPRESSING?—A North Side Chicago restaurant was second choice for a night on the town for Army Pvt. Alan Bonner and fellow Viet Nam veterans turned away from the ice revue at the Conrad-Hilton Hotel. The management felt the sight of the wounded soldiers might depress other customers. Bonner, 18, of South Lyon, Mich., was pinned down for six hours by Communist troops near Saigon.

New Evolution Law Promised

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Winston Chandler, candidate for governor, said Sunday he would seek a new Arkansas evolution law is the state Supreme Court rules its present statute against teaching the theory is unconstitutional.

Chandler said his law would require that no teacher would be allowed to teach the origin of man from one cell or lower animal as fact, but only as a theory of some man. It would require teaching of the Bible concept of man's origin at the same time.

Pulaski Chancery Court declared Arkansas' current law forbidding the teaching of the theory of evolution unconstitutional after it was attacked by a lawsuit filed by a Little Rock school teacher, Mrs. Susan Epperson.

Gemini 9 Gets the Go-Ahead Sign

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The "go" light flashed brightly to tracking stations around the world today for the Gemini 9 spacemen to embark on a three-day exploration of some unknowns of space travel. "We're ready to go," said Air Force Lt. Col. Thomas P. Stafford, his rookie pilot, Navy Lt. Cmdr. Eugene A. Cernan, soon to become the world's champion cosmic stroller, garded.

They'll ride a mighty Titan rocket into the hostile void of space at 12:38 p.m. (EDT) Wednesday to search the skies for a stubby target satellite, then boldly latch Gemini 9's nose to it.

Officials Do Not Confirm Peace Move

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House had nothing to say by way of confirmation or denial today of a report that North Viet Nam has made overtures for peace talks through Romania.

Press secretary Bill D. Moyers told reporters he could assure them that if anything in any way resembling an offer to talk were to come from the North Vietnamese ("this administration would seize on it with eagerness and hope."

Newsweek magazine reported Monday that Communist diplomats in Washington were the source of its report of a North Vietnamese peace move through Romania.

President Johnson asked all the assistant secretaries of state to the White House today but Moyers said this was one of a series of similar meetings for an exchange of ideas.

Charges Follow Accident Here

Yesterday at Third and Walnut cars driven by Marion Mendenhall of Prescott and Thomas M. Haynie of Longview, Texas collided with considerable damage to the rear of the Prescott car.

Officers Long and Sinyard charged Haynie with driving while intoxicated and with failure to have a driver's license.
